Jap Premier Was Last Axis Leader to Pay

Execution Occurred Quickly at Prison; Utmost Secrecy Surrounded Grim Event; Newsmen Not Present

Tokyo, Thursday, Dec. 23 (AP)—Former Premier Hideki Tojo and six other Japanese warlords were hanged today for Japan's crimes against humanity.

Tojo was the last to die of the three Axis dictators who plunged the world into the most bloody war in history.

The army announced seven went to their deaths on the gallows in Sugamo Prison, where they had been held for more than two and a half years—during and after their long trial.

Only Monday the U.S. Supreme Court closed the last possible door of escape. It found it was without authority to act on the appeals of two of them, Gen. Kenji Doihara and former Premier Koki Hirota.

The seven were condemned by the international tribunal, which handed out prison terms to 18 of their co-defendants.

The army gave no details of the hangings. It promised to hand out more information later to newsmen, who were not permitted to attend.

The first of the condemned men dropped to his death at one minute past midnight today (10:01 a. m. Eastern Standard Time.)

Who was the first to die and the order in which they went were not indicated. It also was possible several were hanged at once because the executions went off fast.

The hangings were finished in 35 minutes after midnight.

A Buddhist priest and two U. S. chaplains were reportedly in the prison for the executions since early Wednesday.

Tojo survived his fellow dictators, Adolf Hitler of Germany and Benito Mussolini of Italy, because of American medical skill.

In September of 1945, as American troops came to arrest him, Tojo shot himself with a revolver. Quick medical attention and a transfusion of American whole blood saved him from the gallows.

Tojo was the only one of the three to stand trial. Hitler supposedly died in the ruins of Berlin as the Russians closed in. Mussolini was killed by Italian partisans.

Col. Marion P. Echols, MacArthur's public information officer, said today that the hangings were completed by 11:00 p. m.

The names of three men so far have cropped out of the sessions as possibilities to succeed Bedenkapp.

Rep. Dean P. Taylor of Troy was reported first choice of the Republican high command, but it is believed he has turned down the post because of uncertain health. Taylor, who represents the 33rd congressional district, has been ill periodically for five years.

James R. MacDuff of Schenectady county chairman, and Leon F. Swears of Johnstown, Fulton county leader, are considered next in line with Swears the more probable choice.

Bedenkapp succeeded Edwin F. Dewey last year.

Bedenkapp to Get State P.S.C. Post

GOP Chairman to Resign; Dewey to Meet Five County Leaders

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 22 (AP)—Glen R. Bedenkapp will resign as state Republican committee chairman in the immediate future and will be appointed to the State Public Service Commission.

A source close to Bedenkapp said today the chairman's resignation might be announced before Christmas and certainly would be before the legislature convenes Jan. 5.

Governor Dewey will name Bedenkapp to the P.S.C. to replace Neal Brewster, Syracuse Democrat, whose term expired two years ago, the source said. Brewster has stayed on because no successor has been appointed.

Dewey scheduled another conference with Republican county committee chairmen today to discuss selection of a new G.O.P. state chairman.

Dewey's office announced that five county leaders would meet with him this afternoon. Dewey talked with 26 others yesterday and Monday.

New Congress Will Pass 'Single Package' Act, McGrath Says; Favors Wagner Act

Changes Possible

Wagner Measure May Be Revised Along Suggested Lines

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath predicted today the new Congress will pass a "single package" labor bill. He said it will provide for:

1. Outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law.
2. Reinstatement of the Wagner Act.
3. Revision of the Wagner measure, mainly along the lines President Truman outlined in his 1947 state of the union message.

McGrath told a reporter that while he has not discussed this matter with Mr. Truman, there is no basis for reports that the administration may decide against asking complete elimination of the Taft-Hartley Law.

McGrath said he looks for repeal, restoration of the Wagner Act and revision of the latter measure to be handled simultaneously.

The senator added that he is not ruling out Wagner Act changes in addition to those Mr. Truman urged two years ago.

The Wagner Act was the basic labor law prior to enactment of the Taft-Hartley Act. The latter law actually is a Wagner Act revision designed according to its backers, put labor and management on an equal basis.

The President has urged: Outlawing of certain kinds of jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

Extension of Labor Department facilities to help collective bargaining.

Broadening of the Social Security program, better housing, a comprehensive national health program and a "fair" minimum wage to replace the present 40-cent-an-hour standard.

Creation of a commission to study the whole field of labor-management relations.

Some of those things Mr. Truman got in one form or another in the Taft-Hartley Law. But he also got a lot more he did not want. So he vetoed the bill, which Congress promptly passed over his dissent.

Two days ago the Republican-controlled Senate House committee set up to study the Taft-Hartley measure, announced plans to recommend six "fairly important" changes in the law.

Last night McGrath said the Republicans "fail to understand what happened in this country November 2." He added:

"They fail to realize that the nation gave the Democratic Party a mandate for the change in the Taft-Hartley Law and the substitution of legislation that would preserve industrial peace by being fair to both labor and management."

O'Dwyer Directs Thorough Probe of Duggan's Death

New York Mayor Acts Soon After Getting Wire From Welles; F.B.I. Has No Part

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer today directed New York police to make a "thorough investigation" of the mysterious death of Laurence Duggan.

The mayor acted after receiving a telegram from former Under-Secretary of State Sumner Welles, who said he was convinced the death of the one-time State Department expert was not a suicide.

Duggan plunged to his death Monday night from his 16th floor office just off Fifth Avenue.

The police will seek to find out whether he committed suicide, was the victim of an accident as his relatives maintain, or was the object of foul play.

The suggestion that "foul play" had figured in the death was made yesterday by Acting Chairman Kaid Mundt (R-S.D.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The committee earlier had released testimony linking Duggan to a pre-war Communist group in the State Department.

Welles' telegram to O'Dwyer read:

"Laurence Duggan was for years one of my closest associates in the State Department and since I received from him only yesterday (Monday) a letter written in the best of spirits, asking me to send him some suggestions in a matter in which he was interested, I find it impossible to believe his death was self-inflicted."

"I hope you will permit me to urge that every possible step be taken to find out whether there may not be some other explanation."

The mayor replied:

"The Police Commissioner (Arthur J. Egan) has been directed to make a thorough investigation of all circumstances concerning the death of Laurence Duggan as requested by you. You have my personal assurance that this will be done."

At the same time, the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced it will not enter the probe of Duggan's death, because it is a local police matter.

"More Than Slight" Mundt had said there was "more than a slight possibility of foul play" that might "lead directly to the Communist espionage conspirators." Later, he said, he had no evidence of his own to support his suspicions.

Yesterday afternoon, ex-Communist Courier Whitaker Chambers, who purportedly once accompanied O'Dwyer to the State Department, was in New York.

Torch Is Put to Tjepoe; All but Two Major Cities on Java Taken by Dutch

Got Most in Pact Dutch Were Given Oil and Rubber Areas in Agreement

Batavia, Java, Dec. 22 (AP)—The United Nations Good Offices Committee accused the Dutch today of violating the Renville truce agreement in their new warfare against the Indonesian republic.

The Dutch, continuing their almost unopposed march through Indonesian territory, have taken all but two major cities in Java, Dutch communists said, and in Sumatra the picture was reported much the same. The Indonesians have called for scorched earth tactics.

The Dutch announced Indonesians put the torch to Tjepoe, Java's only oil center. This was the first mention in any communique of the Indonesian scorched earth policy. The Dutch subsequently overran Tjepoe.

A communique, continuing a recital of advances in both Java and Sumatra, was taken, Jogjakarta, the No. 1 capital in central Java, was seized at the outset of the campaign Sunday. Thus far, the Dutch said, their total casualties are eight killed and 14 wounded and the drive continues against "very little resistance."

The Good Offices Committee, which had tried to mediate the Netherlands-Republic dispute, accused the Dutch in a cable to the Security Council at Paris.

The U.N. report to the council said the Dutch evidently planned their current campaign against the republic while still corresponding with Republicans through the United Nations. Since the "police action" began, the Dutch have seized all the top Indonesian political leaders and their army commander.

Couldn't Comply in Time

The committee's report to the council, signed by Merle Cochran of the United States and T. W. Cutts of Australia, said the tone of a Netherlands letter of Dec. 17—a day before the "police action" began—to the U. S. representative required a reply within a time limit which was "impossible of fulfillment."

This, the committee said, gave the letter "some features of an ultimatum."

(The Dutch announced December 11 they were breaking off discussions with the Indonesian Republic and would form an Interim Federal Government for the islands without it. On December 16, the Dutch rejected a proposal by Republican Premier Mohamed Hatta for further talks.)

"Not only have the possibilities of negotiation under the auspices of the committee not been exhausted, but they have not been adequately explored," the committee told the Security Council. "There have been no negotiations under auspices of the committee since 23 July. Recent direct talks cannot be regarded as negotiations as they took the form of Netherlands demands for complete surrender of the Republic to the Netherlands position on all important issues."

Despite frequent requests, Netherlands authorities have not yet provided the United States with details of the talks.

Grandson of President TR Was One of 35 Victims of Accident

Hong Kong, Dec. 22 (AP)—Quentin Roosevelt's body was believed to be one of four still in the ashes of a Chinese air transport that crashed, killing 35 persons yesterday on Basalt Island, seven miles from here.

He was a grandson of President Theodore Roosevelt.

Fourteen bodies, all mangled beyond recognition, have been recovered. They will be transported by police launch to Hong Kong tomorrow.

Pilots at the scene of the crash estimated today that the C-54 was flying 200 miles an hour when it crashed.

Tribute to Dental Committee Reflected in Health Report

In the monthly report of the Ulster County Health Department for November is paid a tribute to the members of the advisory committee to the Board of Health which has been established by the Ulster-Greene Dental Society.

Devoting much time and effort to a study of dental problems, this committee will shortly report to the County Health Department regarding a recommended program for Ulster county. This group has played a major role in the establishment and conduct of all health department dental programs in the county.

Members of that committee include Dr. Sidney Wolff, chairman; Dr. Robert Whelan, past chairman; Dr. Harold Newman, Dr. Charles O'Reilly, Dr. Joseph B. Kearney, Jr., and Dr. Joseph Falvey, ex-officio, president, Ulster-Greene Dental Society.

The report states that the new concentrated Perulfiss vaccine which was reported last month is now ready for distribution from the Health Department office.

A report on the mass chest X-ray survey which ended November 30, in Kingston shows a total of 1,418 X-rays by the end of November 8,775 films had been read with the following results: 8,531 negative, 20 showing possible active tuberculosis, 52 probable inactive tuberculosis, 57 suspicious for tuberculosis, and 125 showing a chest condition other than tuberculosis. In less than three per cent of the persons

Accompanying Onions
To prepare onions to accompany hamburgers, liver or steak, peel them in half and then cut into lengthwise strips. Saute in oil for 10 minutes, turning them frequently, then cover the saucepan and let them steam until they are as tender as desired. A few drops of gravy coloring added when they are cooked will insure a good rich brown; mix the onion strips with the sauce well before serving.

Railroad Gives Boy First Part Of His Reward

Canastota, N. Y., Dec. 22 (AP)—An 11-year-old boy gets the first part of his reward today for warning the New York Central about loose ties and couplings on the track that carries the crack Empire State Express through here.

In 1958, Jimmy Colclough may have the second part—a job with the railroad if he wants it.

The first part of the reward includes a party at Jimmy's home at nearby Beeches, Bridge.

The railroad provided a Christmas tree, a holiday dinner, and as a gift—an electric train. The Central already has had Jimmy's farm home wired so he can operate the train.

J. J. Frawley of Syracuse, general manager of the railroad's lines east, reported this last night:

On November 20, when Jimmy was walking along the tracks near his home he noticed loose plates and couplings on the track over which the Empire State Express soon would move. He ran to a crossing and told a watchman. A dispatcher was informed by message and traffic was rerouted until repairs were made.

Frawley said the railroad had guaranteed Jimmy a job when he is 21.

Iron Age Says Prices May Increase

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—The steel industry will have to increase prices again if wages go up in 1949, according to Iron Age, National Metalworkers Weekly.

The weekly adds that higher wages must bring such increases even though steel men know prices are too high and a further boost may price the product out of some markets.

While Iron Age says there is no change in the near future of any across-the-board increase in the base price of steel products it adds that for some time the industry has added extra charges where the price of materials needed to produce coated steel items without making any change in the base price.

The weekly says one thing is certain—there will be no reductions of steel prices next year.

Storage Apples Are Fewer in Ulster

There was slightly more than half as many apples in storage in Ulster county on December 1, than there was on the same day last year, it was indicated by a survey of representative storages made recently by Walter Baran, assistant county agricultural agent.

The decline in storage holdings was due in part to the fact that the apple crop this year was less than that of the previous year and in part to the fact that apples are moving out of storage faster than in 1947.

Reports from 27 cold storages in the county disclosed that there were 398,554 bushels in storage on December 1, this year, compared with 727,959 bushels on the same date in 1947, according to Baran's figures. This is a decline of 45.2 per cent.

In the month of November, 1948, there were 131,421 bushels moved from the 27 storages, compared with 119,485 bushels moved from the same storages in November of 1947. This is an increase of nine per cent.

The 27 storages represented approximately one-half the total storages in Ulster county.

Give Them Dogs, He Says

Los Angeles, Dec. 22 (AP)—Alan Young, film and radio comedian, believes the best way to prevent children from going to the dogs is to give them one. For the fourth year, Young will appear at the Animal Shelter tomorrow to give away dogs to youngsters. He will pay the pound and license fees. He was given away 300 dogs in previous years and says it is a good way to combat juvenile delinquency.

Pickets Celebrate

Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 22 (AP)—Pickets celebrated a solid year of picketing at Proug's department store last night by keeping right on picketing. Members of the Retail Clerks' International Association (A.F.L.) walked out four days before Christmas, 1947, to enforce the union's demand for recognition as bargaining agent for the eight-floor department store's 200 employees. Two of the pickets marching last night were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woods. They met on the picket line and married last October.

Wins His First Case

Chicago, Dec. 22 (AP)—Lemoyne Stitt won his first case as a lawyer yesterday and his mother, Mrs. Martha Stitt, 43, said she was very happy. Mrs. Stitt was the defendant. She was in safety court charged with running a stop light and ramming into a truck. Mrs. Stitt denied the charge. "I think you ought to win your first case, Judge Irwin B. Clorfene told Stitt, 'particularly since your client is your mother.'"

BB GUNS AND RIFLES

The seriousness of children playing with BB guns and air rifles was one of the topics of discussion at the recent meeting of the local medical society. The New York State Commission for the blind feels it is vitally important that the matter of BB guns and air rifles be brought to the attention of parents and others concerned with the welfare of children. BB guns and rifles have been responsible for loss of sight and very serious eye injuries.

Members of the Medical Society of the County of Ulster declare that experience has shown that vigilant attention to a problem of this nature is of inestimable value and will eventually result in fruitful gain.

Aside from the responsibility of parents under the law as it relates to the prohibition of children under 16 years carrying or having in their possession air guns, spring gun or any other instrument or weapon in which the propelling force is a spring, the great hazards should compel the strictest of attention.

The Penal Law of the state also states that any person is guilty of a misdemeanor who offers, sells, loans, or gives to a child a weapon of the above description.

GIVER OF THE STATUE

Among the numerous towns which the Germans devastated in the last year was St. Die, France. Its representative, Mme. Abel Ferry, was honored the other day by the New York City American Legion, whose members have been sending food to her town. The name of Ferry should open all American doors, for Mme. Ferry's uncle, Jules Ferry, as premier of France in 1884, presented the Statue of Liberty to the United States.

Jules Ferry had other claims to fame. Believing that the French brooded too much over the loss of Alsace-Lorraine to Germany, he proposed colonial expansion as a substitute, and as premier was responsible for the annexation of Tunis and Indo-China. This won him the opposition of the "Tiger", Georges Clemenceau, later the savior of France in the first world war.

Clemenceau did not believe in foreign ventures, preferring to save France's entire strength for the coming second war with Germany, which turned out to be a world war. His attacks brought Ferry down, and not for fifteen years did France have another prime minister worth remembering today.

NEW HALL OF FAME

The Hall of Fame idea is spreading. That at Cooperstown, N. Y., for the great baseball players of the past is perhaps the oldest for athletes, and certainly the best known of its kind. Now the contest board of the American Automobile Association has voted to set up such a memorial for racing drivers. The location and the qualifications for admission will be settled by a committee. Barney Oldfield is thought sure to get in, and Indianapolis, where the 500-mile speedway race takes place, will be seriously considered for the location.

The committee might consider as an honorary member the most famous of all fast drivers. This is that Jehu of whom the Old Testament watchman said, "The driving is like the driving of Jehu, son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously". Jehu's name therefore was once accepted as the slang-term for a cab driver.

THE POPULAR AUTO

Establishments in Newark, N. Y., have recently raised their parking charges. Once the owner could leave his automobile downtown for 50 cents. Now the rate is 75 cents. All over the United States parallel stories are reported.

With manufacturers raising the prices on new cars, some dealers still requiring the purchase of unwanted gadgets before they sell, and parking lots raising their rates, the motorist is in for a bad time. Advisers on family budgets have long hinted, as loudly as they thought expedient, that for a man

THE NATIONAL DEFENSE

The report that Ferdinand Eberstadt's "Task Force" of the Hoover committee made on the national defense is so important that it ought to be given the widest circulation and the most careful study. It is a long report, going into such detail that a casual glance at a press release is inadequate. It is not an exaggeration to say that upon the efficiency of our national defense organization depends the future existence of this country. In its introduction, the Eberstadt report sizes up this situation as follows:

"A future conflict, if one should come, might well develop into a war of survival, which would strain to the utmost the economy of the nation. Today, in a time of full employment and booming economy, the commitments of the nation are so huge that the military principle of economy of force must be honored in the observance rather than in the breach; the most careful possible utilization of our energies and resources must govern every operation of the national military establishment."

The national defense is in the hands of Secretary of Defense James Forrestal, a zealous advocate of efficient unification of a national rather than a departmental outlook. He has had a lot of trouble with his subordinates, who are, in spite of wartime experience, too departmentally competitive. Unification could have been more successful than it has been, if the branches of the services were less enthusiastic about themselves and more willing to realize that we date not, can not, must not lose the next war as we have lost the last war.

It is from this standpoint that the basic recommendations of the task force become so important:

"1. That the primary objective of the national security organization is to preserve the peace, but that it must at all times be ready and able, promptly and effectively, to marshal all of our resources, human and material, for the protection of our national security."

"2. That civilian influence must be dominant in the formulation of national policy and that civilian control of the military establishment must be clearly established and firmly maintained."

"3. That the nation is entitled to the maximum possible return for every dollar of military expenditure."

"4. That military efficiency—in other words, readiness for war—must be the fundamental objective of the national military establishment."

"5. That elimination of wasteful duplication is essential to good government, but that the preservation, within sound limits, of a healthy competitive spirit and of service pride and tradition are basic to progress and morale."

The Eberstadt task force puts on paper what has been discussed widely since the Tehran and Yalta Conferences, namely, that lack of co-ordination between the national defense and the foreign policy produces a situation in which the army never knows why it is fighting, what are its goals. Had it not been that American military in the last war would not have found themselves called back when they went "too far" in the direction of Berlin. Of this Eberstadt says:

"Within slightly more than a score of years, at great cost in life and property, we have won two wars, only to lose the peace both times through lack of clear and consistent national policy objectives. But the bitter lesson is not yet seem to have been fully learned. Our foreign and military policies are not yet firmly tied together."

If the Hoover committee had produced nothing more than the Eberstadt report, it would have justified its existence. This is an overall job, so thorough that Congress will have to accept its recommendations. But even more, the men in our Army, Navy and Air Force will have to take them seriously. The terrific blitz of our new arm, the Air Force, was dramatic, but the seriousness of our defense problems forces the conclusion that there is no pat formula for the national defense.

In the next war, which ought not to be permitted to come, every man and woman and every resource of this nation will have to be mobilized. We shall undoubtedly have to suspend many of our traditional freedoms. We shall undoubtedly lose our economy. It is not too soon to think about that now—and the Eberstadt report leads the way.

SPELLS OF RAPID HEARTBEAT

When the heart suddenly begins to beat rapidly, perhaps 100 to 144 beats per minute instead of 72, then after minutes or hours suddenly quiets down to 72 again, it is natural to think that there is something wrong with the heart. Rapid heart beating is called tachycardia and when it occurs in paroxysms or sudden spells it is called paroxysmal tachycardia.

No one has discovered the single or specific cause of tachycardia but a history of the case often, but not always, shows a nervous or emotional temperament present although the patient outwardly may appear calm and not emotional.

Between attacks of paroxysmal tachycardia, the patient is free from any heart symptoms such as rapid heartbeat, breathlessness, pain in chest, swelling of feet; but there is always the knowledge and often the fear of future attacks.

Fortunately, there is a drug that stops rapid heartbeat and it is available to all who need it. It is quinidine, not quinine, and is given by mouth as with quinine. As quinidine is not always available (both quinidine and quinine were unavailable for civilians during World War II), physicians and patients use the various forms of treatment used before the discovery of quinidine.

A popular treatment is the drug, syrup of ipecac (one to two teaspoons), which by bringing on a vomiting spell stops the attack. Also, placing the finger down the throat practically always causes vomiting.

Another method is pressure of the palm of the hand on the middle of the abdomen or slightly upward toward the heart; this causes pressure on the large nerve, the vagus, which supplies all the organs in the abdomen. This pressure seldom fails to stop an attack of paroxysmal tachycardia. Still another way of causing pressure on this big nerve and stopping an attack is bending over and trying to expel gas or wastes from the bowel. Another method used to stop an attack is pressing the fingers hard over the eyeballs.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington—Governor Dewey told young Republican leaders at an off-the-record dinner at the University Club the other day that he favors calling a special Republican convention in 1949. The purpose would be to settle who will rule the G.O.P.—the conservative Old Guard or the young liberals who want to give the party a new look.

The idea of a special Republican convention was first proposed by the late Wendell Willkie's son, Philip, who has been out putting the plan with G.O.P. leaders.

So far he has won over Cal. for his Governor Earl Warren, Indiana's ex-Governor Harold E. Stinson and such Republican senators as George Aiken and Ralph Flanders of Vermont, Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Wayne Morse of Oregon, Ray Baldwin of Connecticut, Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Charles Tobey of New Hampshire, Alexander Smith of New Jersey and James Ken of Missouri.

Meanwhile, the split between the two G.O.P. factions is growing steadily worse. The Old Guard, actually argues that the best strategy is to sit back and wait for a depression; they believe the people then will rally around the G.O.P. standard again. The liberal faction argues that a depression would drive the people to Harry Wallace, not the G.O.P., and that the best course is to build a progressive program, and take it, Truman-style, to the grass roots. Both sides have been holding post-mortems on the election, but the first real showdown will come the third week in January when the Republican National Committee meets here.

A.F.L. Favors Part of Taft-Hartley
The Taft-Hartley bill will be one of the most controversial questions before Congress, but President Truman and four A. F. of L. leaders had little trouble agreeing on its repeal provisions when they conferred at the White House recently.

The A.F.L. quartet consisted of President William Green, Secretary-Treasurer George Meany and Vice Presidents George Harrison and Dan Tracy. They opened the conference by asking how far Truman would go in his labor recommendations to Congress.

"We of labor are hopeful the Democratic-platform, pledge for Taft-Hartley repeal and restoration of the Wagner Act will be carried out in full and as quickly as possible," said Green.

"I'm for that," replied Truman. He added that there were some necessary amendments to the new act, however, that he hoped the A.F.L. will support.

"There are three of them," he continued, "and I have spoken of them before. In my message to Congress last January, I urged a ban on jurisdictional strikes, on secondary boycotts and on strikes by irresponsible labor leaders that create a national emergency."

"We must protect the people from strikes in key industries that cripple production in other industries; even if we have to use the courts against the few, unscrupulous leaders who cause them," Truman argued, "obviously referring to John L. Lewis. 'Our economy can't stand it, especially in these times of world unrest. I am sure responsible labor leaders like yourselves will agree.'"

"The A. F. of L. will accept the three amendments you propose," promised Green. His three colleagues also nodded assent.

"What's more," said Green, "we'll help you put them across, if you need our help. The changes you suggest are reasonable."

"The Dew-Drop"

Publicity given the "Dew-Drop"—the plush plane supposedly built for "President" Dewey—will have a healthy effect upon army-navy waste in using special planes for VIPs (very important persons).

Two years ago Air Secretary Symington and Secretary of War Bob Patterson both took firm stands against setting aside special, de luxe planes for generals and cabinet members. However, this ban has gradually eased up, saved in both the army and navy by curtailing the "plush jobs" reserved for private usage.

Real fact is that the Lockheed Company was chiefly responsible for getting the air forces into trouble. Contract for the "plush job" was publicly announced on April 29, long before either Dewey or Truman was nominated. It was finished and took its first flight on October 27, shortly before the election.

In the interim, however, the Lockheed people, long jealous over the fact that Truman rode in a

Douglas, had gone to Dewey and suggested that he use the new Lockheed Constellation—after he became President of the United States. The independence, made by Douglas, should be set aside, Lockheed suggested to Dewey, and he should ride in a really edged-up plane—the plane they were just finishing.

That was how the Dew-Drop happened to get its name.

Real fact about the black-market trading of scarce Marshall Plan metals back to the U.S.A. from England, Holland and Belgium, is that W. B. Griffin of Modern Metals magazine called this to the attention of E. C. Administrator Paul Hoffman three months ago. So did Senator Vandenberg of Michigan—without result.

What happened was that last September, Griffin published the fact that European countries were shipping back to the U.S.A. scarce aluminum we had sent them under the Marshall Plan, at an inflated price of 80 to 90 per cent. At present, U. S. manufacturers can get only about half the aluminum they want, so they'll buy it wherever they can.

Readers' clipped the Griffin article and sent it to Paul Hoffman. No result. Then, Hoffman's close friend, Senator Vandenberg—responsible for his appointment as Marshall Plan administrator—called him. The senator still phoned the idea that Europe was shipping metal back to us, even wrote a letter to that effect.

Now the return shipments are acknowledged.

Not generally realized, however, is the fact that we are playing into Russian hands by sending aluminum to Europe.

What happens is this. The E.C.A. sells aluminum to Marshall Plan countries at 16 cents a pound. It competes with aluminum produced in France, Italy, and Switzerland at 19 cents. These countries have greatly expanded their production since the war, but since they can't compete with the 16-cent E.C.A. aluminum, they sell their product to Russia.

Regular Russia is now buying a good part of the European output and stockpiling it. Furthermore, it is paying for this aluminum in gold. The Soviet is already a large aluminum producer, able to supply its own needs. However, aluminum is one of the most essential of all war materials. Hence the Soviet stockpile.

What this means is that Canadian aluminum, badly needed in the United States, is indirectly going to Russia at the expense of American taxpayers.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

As the truth comes out at last, the actual guilt of the Roosevelt-Communist-Harvard Law School combination in stealing and revealing secrets of the United States to Soviet agents is proved beyond reasonable doubt.

The American free press deserves no credit for the exposure, however, and the radio is not merely remiss but disgraced, for it actually used its loudest voices to belittle and harass the men who did uncover the spies.

Now a brazen campaign is under way, initiated by Chinaboy Henry Luce, of the Time-Life-Fortune group, to glorify Eleanor Roosevelt, who was deeply implicated in the process of Communist penetration. Chinaboy's motives must always be divined, for he is a devious little bowl of suey, but he probably has a fellow-feeling for this impudent adventurer because he employed Whitaker Chambers, the chief traitor, as his senior editor on Time and he frequently has had to "clean house" in the politico-editorial cells of his queer temple. He may think that in exalting Eleanor he is now making common cause with an old accomplice and that by exalting her he helps to extricate himself. However, that is speculation. Luce was born in Shanghai and he brought to occidental journalism an oriental slant which baffles the standard American.

President Truman is committed to the cause of the faithless trustees in the State Department and his motives in fighting down the truth are not impugned as many citizens generously thought they were. His guilt is personal because, we now discover, he learned of this treachery soon after he became President in 1945. He has been protecting the traitors ever since. He thus weakly became tainted with guilt himself. There is legitimate ground for impeachment here. Far from pursuing the traitors, the Department of Justice, obedient to a guilty "policy," has been obstructing the House Committee on Un-American Activities and has failed to take criminal action on evidence which was presented to the Roosevelt cabal as long ago as 1939. This is not gossip but sworn testimony.

The press has failed shamefully and the radio has failed even more today the full, candid truth lies behind an iron curtain. The great powers controlling much of our press and much of radio have suppressed the existence of a treacherous "apparatus" in our State Department for years. Excuses are heard nowadays for this betrayal of the press franchise, but they are tawdry pleas by guilty men. Now Truman has the power further to suppress evidence and persecute, by false indictment and economic boycott, those who bring facts to light. If the Department of Justice confines itself to grotesque mock-prosecutions of old Communist friends conducted by stumbling fakers such as we have seen in New Jersey cases, public confidence in government may be destroyed, although it is a hardy old weed. It has had to be hardy to weather Truman's banal bar-room crack that a documented expose of acts, which but for a slight, technically would have been treason, was just a red herring.

The default of the American press in this case has been due to a combination of cowardice, venality, editorial arrogance and incompetence. Many of the men at fault threw in with Roosevelt long ago and feel that anything that would impair the myth which they created or discredit his wife would discredit them. Some of these fellows have resorted to the tactics of "clean towns" where they corner honest and history, learn the sordid facts of authenticated swindles by the royal family.

The enormous failure of the press to get onto the Alger Hiss story long ago and ferret it out is still being compounded day by day.

Radio never has had morals, principles or character. It is controlled by a political bureau whose chief officer during the war was planted by the same Felix Frankfurter who planted the senile Sifton in the War Department and Alger Hiss in the State Department. Sifton carried out Frankfurter's political purposes in Europe, but one hesitates, for lack of explicit proof, to say that Hiss in the State Department served the purpose of his sponsor.

The only really aggressive radio reporter of fact material in the past, the conspirator has been Fulton Lewis, Jr. Lewis has been blacked out of certain areas for lack of clients with the courage to pay a man to tell the sordid truth. Radio poured out Communist slants as "democracy" while a monitor stood beside Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen to cut him off should he utter a word against Communism.

American papers have a record of great crusades and public service. In this case, there was no physical peril, but the economic threat of the income tax and the squeeze to be applied by idolaters of Roosevelt were influential in a great default of duty.

Inauguration Is To Cost $315,500

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—It will cost about $100,000 to re-install Harry S. Truman as President next month—plus some $215,500 more to celebrate the occasion.

The first figure is for erection of the platform and grandstands at the capitol where Mr. Truman will take the oath of office January 20. Congress pays for that.

The second sum was figured out today by the inaugural committee headed by Mr. Harold E. Stinson. This group is putting on the week-long gala, which is being underwritten by local businessmen.

Hildreth said the outlay tentatively comes to $215,500—not including the inaugural ball which will climax the festivities.

The largest expense is $98,075 for construction of grandstands along the parade route from the capitol to the White House to enable a broad cross section of people to participate in the inauguration ceremonies.

It will cost those people from $2 to $10 or more for the parade seats.

Other budgeted outlays included: $3,350 for decorations, flag poles and flags; $2,975 for post tags; $4,088 for telephones and telegraph; $2,750 for plans and specifications; $1,508.50 for insignia and badges; and $4,491 for medals.

The medals, which have a $2 price tag—plus 15 cents for mailing—are a special product of the Philadelphia mint.

Saving Is Catching

Thrifty Americans began investing in U. S. Savings Bonds in March, 1935. Every month since March, 1945, these "baby bonds" have been maturing, paying four dollars for each three originally invested. Much of this money is being put right into Series E Savings Bonds, to repeat the four-for-three process.

In diameter, they have a profile of Mr. Truman on one side. On the other is a feminine figure symbolic of liberty. Rays and massed figures on the field below represent humanity's aspirations for freedom.

So They Say...

Our future lies with democratic and freedom-loving people. We cannot expect the common man to believe our democratic pronouncements if we make deals with dictators or ally ourselves with political, economic or ecclesiastical reaction.

—Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist bishop, denouncing Franco's regime in Spain.

Stocks always do what they ought to do, but not always when they ought to do it.

—Frederick N. Goldsmith, stock-market tipster.

I have always had responsibilities higher than those I have desired.

—Generalissimo Francisco Franco, Spanish dictator.

They (the "Dixiecrats") left the Democratic party of their own volition. Before they are received back they should be forced to put on sackcloth and ashes.

—Ellis S. Ladd, former Georgia governor.

Charges Probe
Is Completed by O.A. Commission

Managua, Nicaragua, Dec. 22 (AP)—The Commission of the Organization of American States leaves here by plane today for Washington. It has completed its investigation of Costa Rican charges of invasion by forces from Nicaragua.

Spokesmen for the commission said they hoped to have a draft report of their five-day probe ready for presentation upon arrival in Washington Thursday. The Council of American States "may make some very interesting recommendations" on the Costa Rican-Nicaraguan rift, one member of the commission predicted. The commission was told yesterday by Col. T. Alfonso Sapiabosch, U. S. military adviser, that he had flown to rebel-held La Cruz, Costa Rica, where, he said, a battle was raging between Costa Rican troops and the enemy. He saw one dead and several injured soldiers, identified as Costa Ricans, he said. No casualties for the other side were reported. Costa Rican has claimed that the Nicaraguan National Guard and Costa Rican Rebels, led by former President Rafael Calderon Guardia, invaded the country.

Detroit Official Raps
Chicago in His Campaign

Detroit, Dec. 22 (AP)—What some city officials of Detroit think about the situation in Chicago and other towns is enough to—

Where, here it is. Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy charges that gangsterism, gambling and prostitution flourish in Chicago because the police permit it.

Toy's scornful view came out at a hearing yesterday over a proposal to put Detroit's 4,100-man police force under civil service.

"Chicago and other cities got into the picture for comparative purposes. Their troubles, Toy said, were largely due to civil service. He wouldn't have it for Detroit inasmuch as the motor city's police department right now is 'the best in this country, if not in the world.'"

Civil service, Toy said, detracts from efficiency and incentive. "You won't find the activity in Chicago against gangsters that there is in Detroit," said Toy.

"In many large cities, Chicago among them," he added, "you can go into saloons and find slot machines, prostitution, and other rackets and the police do very little about it."

The logic of Toy's argument was challenged by Donald J. Sublette, secretary of the Civil Service Commission.

He said the police commissioner "deliberately picked cities like New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, which are bad examples." "He refrained," Sublette said, "from citing the good cities such as Cincinnati, which has a splendid reputation."

That was as far as it went for the time being.

Certificates Filed

Charles W. Johnson of 285 Flatbush avenue has filed a certificate with the county clerk stating he is doing business in Kingston under the style of Home Delivery News Service as successor to William Cohen of 17 Van Deusen street, who has filed a certificate stating he has ceased to do business in Kingston and within a 10 mile radius of the city.

The lights along the Hudson
Placed there so long ago,
Have guided many a sailor
While the tide ebbed and fro.
Altho a century and more has passed,
The river lights still glow
To guide the sailor as of yore
To the place he wants to go.
The future will bring changes
In many ways, that we know;
But the lights along the river
Will continue to guide the tow.
And many a river boatman
Through hours long and slow,
Will give thanks for the river lights
When stormy winds do blow.
May the lights of the heavenly city
Guide each sailor safe ashore,
As he takes that one last voyage
When his earthly days are o'er.
And the Pilot whom we call Jesus
Who could wait on and still the waves,
Will welcome the many sailors
Who have found that Jesus saves.

Lada Languishes Again in Jail

Berlin, Dec. 22 (AP)—Edward J. Lada, who says he would give up his American citizenship to stay with his German girl and their baby, gloomily waited today in an army stockade for military government law to decide his case.

The 28-year-old former paratrooper from Newark, N. J., was gingerly retained in "safe keeping" by military police. He escaped Saturday only to be caught again last night.

"Safe keeping is different from solitary confinement," explained Major James Milner, Barnesville, Ga., in charge of the stockade. "Lada gets regular meals and 15 to 20 minutes outside exercise each day. If it were solitary confinement, he'd be on bread and water for 14 days with no exercise." The lanky war veteran, who cracked the Soviet blockade to reach Berlin, was first arrested on a charge of illegal entry into Germany. He said he came to see Ruth Rieck and their two-year-old daughter Nancy.

Soon it was disclosed a blonde German actress, Ursula Schmidt, figured in his life, but Ursula publicly broke off their romance. Lada told his captors last night he slipped out of the stockade to see Ruth again, and he was willing to give up his citizenship if necessary, to stay with her and their baby.

Berardi Bid Low On Hawthorne Job

It has been announced that a local contractor presented the lowest bid for resurfacing drive-ways and installing new granite curbing around the State Police barracks at Hawthorne.

James Berardi of 40 Roosevelt avenue outbid three other well-known contracting firms of the southern New York area. His figure was $82,692.25. It was $67.50 lower than his nearest competitor.

The other firms bidding were County Asphalt, Inc., Tarrytown, $82,759.75; Peckham Road Corporation, White Plains, $84,974.75 and Westchester Colprovia Corp., New Rochelle, $85,300.

Berardi, who specializes in surfacing parking ground areas, completed a number of them in this section, including the one at the new Empire Market, floor of the big drill shed at the state armory, and constructed the new skating rink at the Myron J. Michael School playground.

The project at the Hawthorne police barracks will take approximately 300 tons of blacktop, 6,500 feet of granite curbing, and 800 feet of sewer line.

Mrs. McCree Dies

Garden City, N. Y., Dec. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Gay McCree, 35, wife of coal heir Vivian McCree, died yesterday at Nassau Hospital where authorities said her death was caused by pneumonia induced by an overdose of sleeping pills. Medical Examiner Theodore Curphey performed an autopsy but withheld his findings, pending chemical analysis of the vital organs. Police said Mrs. McCree was removed to the hospital Sunday morning after her husband said he awoke and found her in a coma. Mrs. McCree, about 10 years older than her husband, had been taking sleeping pills under her physician's orders, police said. Detective William Lynes said McCree told him he threw away the balance of the tablets after he found his wife in a coma.

Man Is Killed

Scarsdale, N. Y., Dec. 22 (AP)—A 21-year-old deaf mute was killed last night when he fell under a commuter train as it pulled into the Scarsdale station. Police identified the youth as Eric Langfelder and said he apparently slipped on the platform, falling in the path of the train.

Sugar Notch Considers Late F.D.R. First Citizen

Sugar Notch, Pa., Dec. 22 (AP)—The residents of Sugar Notch, which considers F.D.R. its leading adopted citizen, today considered a plan to change the town's name to Roosevelt.

The name of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was placed first among citizens who "gave their lives for their country" on a war memorial monument unveiled here last summer. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt attended the ceremony. John A. Riley, Democratic county chairman and head of the Sugar Notch Memorial Society, said the move to change the name now awaits submission of proof to the county courts that the town of Roosevelt would not confuse its financial obligations, property identification and related matters. Sugar Notch is a mining town of 2,500 in the hard coal belt of eastern Pennsylvania.

Santa Claus Is Hanged

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 22 (AP)—Workers of the Westinghouse Electric Co. Pacific avenue plant yesterday hanged Santa Claus in effigy in a dispute with management over holiday time off. The Santa effigy was paraded in front of the plant's main office by members of Local 456, United Electrical Workers (C.I.O.) before the "hanging." The dispute is over interpretation of contract provisions for time off on Christmas and New Year's Day.

On Way to Germany

Burbank, Calif., Dec. 22 (AP)—Comedian Bob Hope, his wife, Dolores, and seven members of his radio show are en route to Germany today to play Santa with a bagful of jokes for American occupation troops. The group, which left here last night, will be joined in Washington, D. C., by Vice President-elect Alben Barkley, Air Secretary Stuart Symington, Gen. James Doolittle and other officials.

Woman, 21, Is Sought by Police As Child Stealer

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 22 (AP)—A nationwide search was on today for a 21-year-old woman charged with kidnapping her own child from its foster parents.

District Attorney Carl B. Shelley said last night he had sworn out a felony warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Jeanne Morgan Bragot, and her husband, John M. Bragot, 35, of Tacoma, Wash. Shelley said the couple made off with blonde three-year-old Vicki Jeanne Snyder from the home of her grandparents who had adopted her.

The child was legally adopted by Harry M. Snyder of Harrisburg about two years ago," Shelley said. "The mother signed away all her rights to the child when she put her up for adoption. That makes her no different from anyone else."

Meanwhile, state police sent out instructions to police between here and Tacoma to pick up the couple, who are believed to be driving a southern route to Washington.

Shelley said Mrs. Bragot stopped at Snyder's home here Monday and received permission to take the child to visit mutual friends in Hummelstown 10 miles away.

The Snyders said they asked that she be returned by 6 p. m. so she could attend a Christmas party in her honor at a nearby church.

"We checked with the friends late in the evening when Vickie hadn't returned," Snyder said, "and learned that they hadn't been there."

Vickie was four months old when her mother left her with her grandparents following a divorce from the child's father, he said.

"The next three years were happy ones for Vickie and us," the Snyders told a reporter last night. "We legally adopted Vickie and she became a part of our hearts."

The Snyders told how they had heard nothing from their former daughter-in-law until a short time ago when they received a letter from Tacoma informing them that she had remarried.

"She said she wanted above all else, a chance to see her daughter once again," Snyder said. "She said she was planning a trip here and pleaded for a chance to see Vickie."

Pitching Horseshoes

By Billy Rose

Last week-end it was raining angoras and alreales in Mt. Kisco, and so I decided to catch up on some books that had been piling up around the house.

"Trying to live dangerously, huh," chided my missus. . . . Forty hours and six packs of cigarettes later, I had plowed through seven—count 'em—seven of the new books and, if I may muscle into the literary department for a few minutes, here's how they hit me.

1. "Larks in the Popcorn" is a happy libel on suburban life. It was written by a Westchester neighbor of mine—H. Allen Smith, and H. Allen, as all and sundry must know by now, has handed the populace almost as many laughs as his namesake, Fred.

Westchester county, as Smith details it, is a strip of territory inhabited by city slickers who have decided to rough it with radiant faces and radiant heating. "Popcorn" is as gay as a Santa Claus suit, and no night table should be without it.

2. "The Saragun Special" is a fatish anthology of the best short stories written by the Great Man himself—and when I use the phrase "great man" I'm not kidding. Wild Will, as I see him, is one of the few fellows writing today whose index cards are worth the space they take up in the libraries and, if you think I'm laying it on too thick, reread his magnificent short-short, "The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze."

Unfortunately for the Fresno Flash, however, he's a spectacular fellow, and people these days are so busy relating anecdotes about him that they're apt to forget how good he really is. The 92 stories in "The Saragun Special" are a proper and timely reminder.

3. "Westward Ho!" by Prof. S. J. Perelman, illustrated by Hirschfeld, is a triumph of cliché over matter, and easily the funniest travel book since Sterne's "Sentimental Journey." At the moment, Eleanor and I are planning a round-the-world trip, and the Professor's account of his sorry safari has us almost scared tickleless.

I suggest you read the book in short takes—it's that funny. As, for example, the story of the Hollywood producer's wife who, when asked why she didn't want to take a trip around the world, replied, "So many other places I want to see first."

4. "I Didn't Know It Was Loaded" by Robert Ruark, sometimes known as Hotfoot, Inc., is loaded with good writing. Bob, as his column readers know, is one of the most artful balloon-puncturers in the business, and the nice thing about this gent is that he seems to bear no ill will toward the balloons—he just likes to hear them go Bang! This big shot, that birdshot, this fable, that fable—they're all so much blown-up rubber for the 42 keys on Rambunctious Robert's typewriter. "Loaded" is on the best-seller lists, and you don't have to read much of it before you know why.

5. "New York Confidential" by Jack Lait and Lee Mortimer ought to make everybody happy except the lads in the guide-book business. It's a district-by-district description of East Side, West Side, all around the town, and it tells the nightseer how to avoid sin—but, of course, in the telling it points out where it is.

"I found it a gay, tough and realistic appraisal of M'lady Manhattan, and it should be made required reading for every visiting fireman who doesn't want us city boys to swipe the spots off his Dalmatian."

6. "The Damon Runyon Story" by Ed Weiner is a biography of the greatest Broadway blowell of them all, with a low-letter introduction by Walter Winchell. The late Damon is still the yardstick by which all columnists are measured and found wanting, and in 250 easy-reading pages Weiner has caught the flavor and wonder of the man who practically invented a new language. Phone Santa for a copy, and if his line is busy try your bookseller.

7. "Shake Well Before Using" by Bennett Cerf (bossman of Random House) is like a bowl of salted peanuts—it's hard to keep from dipping into it once you've started. "Shake" is undoubtedly the best joke book for grownups since the same author's "Try and Stop Me" just about put the book business back in business two years ago.

Instead of doing it the easy way and letting the gags fall where they will, Bennett has carefully grouped his material and given it cohesion and class, and the finished product reads almost as smoothly as a Willie Maugham novel. Congress could do a lot worse than pass a law making it required reading for those after-dinner speakers who insist on beginning every paragraph with, "Which reminds me. . . ."

As we drove back to town Monday morning, Eleanor and I got to talking about these seven books, and she summed it all up when she said, "You know, reading can be fun. Perhaps they ought to teach it in the schools."

It's what you do today that pays the dividends on yesterday's education.

A New Yorker tell three stories to the first floor and wasn't hurt. If he had landed in the basement, 'twould have been another story.

The girls behind the wrapping counters are doing a swell job of it these days. It's a gift!

Why worry about how to dance some of the modern steps. Just hop to it!

Too many kind acts that speak for themselves, talk in a whisper.

Congressmen Agree Upon Reorganization

New York, Dec. 21 (AP)—Two Republican congressmen agreed today on the need for the reorganization of their party.

They are Rep. Katherine St. George of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., and Rep. John Davis Lodge of Connecticut. They made their statements upon arrival from Europe aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

Said Mrs. St. George: "Something should be done. For the last 16 years the party has not been positive. It has had a 'no-but' slogan. You can't win an election on that. There's too much me-too policy. The Republican policy should be a direct challenge to the New Deal."

She also told newsmen she thought Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was not aggressive enough in the last presidential campaign.

Rep. Lodge said he felt "that the Republican party must find a means to make its position clear

Flanders Says Industry Has Big Social Responsibility

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—Lawmakers probing profits set to work today on a blueprint they hope the new Congress will use in any overhaul of the government's economic policies.

The chart is being drafted by a Senate-House economic subcommittee which yesterday wound up an extended investigation of how much money business is making now, where it comes from and how it is spent.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt.), chairman of the group, said industry leaders "made a better case for their profits than I expected."

During the hearings spokesmen for various industries argued that their profits are not too high—as consumers and labor groups contend they are—because more money is needed to meet a growing demand for still greater production.

Flanders, however, added this observation to newsmen:

"I am disturbed about the irresistible growth of the big efficient corporations. No matter how well they are justified, they cannot keep growing indefinitely without changing the social and economic system."

"They had better think seriously about this."

The Vermont senator noted that the profits question affects not only wage negotiations and the prices consumers have to pay but also the government's financial status. He said the wage-price problem can't be faced without also taking into consideration the question of boosting tax revenues.

"The government is looking for more pie to cut," Flanders said, "and it must have more pie. But we are reaching the saturation point on the amount of pie there is to be cut."

He said he will ask the Senate to sponsor a national conference of business, labor and farm representatives to seek agreement on long range policies.

Flanders did not comment on reported administration plans to demand revival of the excess profits tax or corporations to increase federal revenues and discourage price boosts.

But Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), who is not a member of the profits probe group, told a reporter he "might support an excess profits tax if it includes a special job-making exemption for small business." He said his idea is for a profit exemption up to $25,000 a year, if this money is plowed back into capital investments that create more jobs.

ing to the actual increase and decline in school costs. Their formula, based on present economic conditions, would boost state aid to $218,000,000 a year.

The current total is $182,000,000, which includes an additional $56,000,000 provided by the Feinberg law.

Dewey has indicated the figure next year will exceed $210,000,000 without any upward revision of base payments.

The Regents suggested increases ranging from $200 to $250 in the minimums provided in the 1947 teachers' salary law. They said:

"Only an adequately financed foundation program in school districts throughout the state can make possible the maintenance of a state-wide salary schedule sufficiently attractive to bring into teaching and hold in the teaching service an adequate supply of well-qualified teachers."

Other amendments recommended for the teachers' salary law would make the annual salary increments automatic through the ninth year of service, instead of the sixth as at present, and would provide a system of special adjustments designed to recognize extended service in the school system.

Baldwin Arrested

Frank Baldwin, 32, of Marlborough was arrested Tuesday by state police from the Highland barracks on a charge of assault, second degree. Arraigned before Justice Ralph B. Clark, Baldwin was held for grand jury action. The matter is still under investigation by the troopers.

Physician Guilty Of Keeping False Records of Birth

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—A Bronx county court jury yesterday convicted Dr. Morris Left, 58, of keeping untrue records at his private maternity hospital and of falsifying a birth certificate.

The prosecution charged that Left kept false records concerning the birth of a son in January, 1947, to Miss Cecelia Sullivan, a Roman Catholic. The child later was adopted by a Jewish family.

Left was said to have issued a birth certificate listing Miss Sullivan's maiden name as Miller and her married name as Samuels.

He faces a possible sentence of a year in jail and a $500 fine.

Left's wife, Miriam, collapsed following the verdict.

Judge Samuel Joseph set January 18, as the date for sentencing.

since December 7," said the judge. "Where did you get $25?"

"I received $51.50 from the Welfare Department to feed myself and three children," she explained. "But we have been eating only cereals so we could have some money to get my husband out of jail for Christmas."

"You keep your money," said the judge, "I'm going to parole your husband in your custody."

Kane is charged with attempting to burglarize a grocery store.

He has claimed he was trying to "get some food for my children."

representative or the deputy Australian representative who are in Batavia with any information regarding the welfare of members of the committee and their staffs and the United Nations secretariat who were in Kaliorang 19 December. (The Dutch announced today, after occupying Kaliorang, that all were safe.)

"Nor have The Netherlands authorities provided means of communication between the two groups. The United States representative and deputy Australian representative are, therefore, once more constrained to forward this report on behalf of the committee without referring (it) to members who are still in Kaliorang."

In repudiation of the revilement agreement, The Netherlands government did not comply with provisions of article 10 of that agreement.

"The committee was not aware of any circumstances connected with the concentration of Republican forces or maneuvers of the Republican army which should have given rise to apprehensions and alarm leading to precipitate action on the part of The Netherlands."

In commencing military operations on 19 December the Netherlands Government acted in violation of its obligations under the Renville Truce Agreement."

(This agreement, signed aboard the U. S. Navy Transport Renville off Batavia last January 17, provided for a truce and stand fast orders while the Dutch and Indonesians negotiated a final political settlement. The agreement gave the Dutch the most productive oil and rubber areas.)

The committee said it had not been possible to obtain an authoritative Republican version of the developments. President Soekarno and various members of his Republican Government are in Dutch custody in Jogjakarta.

The Dutch announced the capture of the republic's capital in Sumatra, Bukittinggi (Fort De Knock), and another batch of towns in central Java.

A Dutch Army spokesman confirmed reports that incidents have broken out in the Dutch federal territories of West Java. The spokesman said, however, they were "only small incidents." (The nature of these was not brought out.)

A Republican broadcast from Kediri, in East Java, said "incoming reports of the fighting are generally more satisfactory than disappointing." It closed with a declaration that Trotskyist Tannalaka is "the father of the proletariat who will lead our people to freedom." Tannalaka was not further identified.

(Other Republican broadcasts, recorded in Singapore, declared Indonesians were rising throughout Java. Guerrillas were reported advancing upon the Dutch Naval Base of Soerabaja and the Port of Cheribon, the latter the scene of a Dutch-Indonesian pact that fizzled.)

Go Hungry for Bail Money Dad in Jail; Wife, Kids

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—Just as her husband, Douglas Kane, 29, was about to be remanded to jail for lack of $500 bail, Mrs. Kane spoke out.

"I have $25 with me," she told Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz. "I want to bail out my husband because the children are crying for him."

Des Moines Marine
Gets His Watch

Des Moines, Dec. 22 (AP)—One of Cpl. Bobby Lee Dyer's Christmas presents this year is exactly the same as he received four years ago—but the gift made him even happier this time.

When the 22-year-old corporal arrived home yesterday from Fort Lewis, Wash. for the holidays his mother Mrs. Hazel Coplen gave him the same wrist watch he received from his wife for Christmas in 1944.

Dyer lost the watch while serving in the marines on Okinawa, just one day before the Sixth Marine Division began to push the Japanese.

"One of our Jap prisoners stole it, or maybe it was just lost," Dyer said. "The G. I. fabric band had been worn badly by sweat and dirt, so it might have dropped off my wrist."

About two weeks ago, Walter Winchell told on his radio program of receiving a letter from Edward Bator, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., another marine veteran who fought on Okinawa.

Bator's letter said he found a watch on a Japanese prisoner in 1945 with Dyer's name and serial number engraved on the back. Bator told Winchell he would return the watch to Dyer or Dyer's relatives.

Dyer's mother heard the broadcast and got in touch with Bator, who sent Mrs. Coplen the watch. Dyer said it is in "excellent shape. In fact it's even in better shape than it was when I lost it. That marine put on a new band."

Appraising the Press

By FRANK TRIPP

I admit no faults common to all newspapers, which could be cured by a universal panacea.

Today's newspaper represents the survival of the fittest, in terms of the public's judgment of what is fittest. Newspapers came to their present estate through giving the people what they want—a prevalent sin of American enterprise.

A way has not been found to sustain a newspaper which does not give the people what they want. Old timers still live who started with a public-be-damned press; a subsidized, dependent, kept press, when newspapers engaged in the "vigorous mutual criticism" which Dr. Hutchins recommends.

In the eyes of modern critics, our worst crime seems to have been achieving the material success which made us independent. Now they would prescribe how we should use that independence.

I believe the right to thus prescribe exists at the local level, that diagnosis must be made at each patient's bedside. I deny the ability of any group to concoct a cure-all for the ills of such a far-flung, individualistic, local institution. To attempt it smacks of quackery.

I believe a newspaper which would, under any circumstances, change its stride—"reform" our critics say—will, of its own accord, learn its faults from the community it serves and strive to correct them.

One which will not do this is beyond the influence of professors, who have one remedy, politicians, who have another; labor and industry with still others; plus countless pressure groups, all with different axes to grind.

Should any consensus, agreeable to all, be discovered by a new brand of pollsters, at 200 grand a year, my guess is that to stay independent, solvent and free, newspapers will have to go right on giving the people what they want—or make way for a medium which will.

I deny that the American newspaper press is collectively guilty as charged.

Eisler Awarded
Honor in Germany

Berlin, Dec. 22 (AP)—Gérhart Eisler, the man the House Un-American Activities Committee calls the No. 1 U. S. Communist, was reported today to have been awarded a Leipzig University professorship.

The university is under Russian control. The Soviet-licensed German news agency A.D.N. said the Saxony education ministry appointed Eisler to the post "although he is still being held against his will in the United States as a victim of the imperialistic warmongers."

This was a reference to the fact Eisler got in trouble for refusing to answer questions at a hearing of the Un-American Activities Committee in February, 1947. A U. S. District Court in Washington convicted him of contempt of Congress and sentenced him to a year in jail. He appealed, arguing that the committee can not constitutionally make a witness disclose his politics. The Supreme Court agreed Nov. 8 to consider the appeal.

A.D.N. said the professorship was in "current political and social questions" in Leipzig's social science faculty.

New York City
Has No Postoffice

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—There's no such thing as a New York city postoffice.

That was Postmaster Albert Goldman's explanation yesterday to a Brooklyn citizen who complained that three letters addressed to him in "New York City" had been returned to an out-of-town sender marked "not in directory."

It's this way, Goldman said. There's a New York, N. Y. postoffice (which serves Manhattan and the Bronx) and separate postoffices in the other boroughs, including Brooklyn. Mail for Brooklyn should be marked that way, he said, because it's apt to be returned if addressed to the non-existent "New York City" postoffice.

tire Russian occupation zone, announced that student self-government would be abolished in zonal high schools. He did not explain the reason, but complained of absenteeism and lack of school discipline.

Tribute to Dental

X-rayed was any unusual condition found. These have been notified to consult their physician or return for a larger size chest X-ray so that a definite diagnosis may be established. X-rays are being studied and reports continue to be sent out.

Towns Want Surveys
Since the mass chest X-ray survey has been started in Ulster county many townships in the county have expressed an interest in having a mass survey in their area. The Health Department plucked its assistance in seeking to provide surveys next year for

as many as possible.
The number of X-rays in each ward of the city is as follows:
First ward 972; second 1,716; third 1,327; fourth 913; fifth 557; sixth 520; seventh 678; eighth 566; ninth 914; tenth 996; eleventh 997; twelfth 1,649; thirteenth 282. At rally 895.
Dr. George W. Weber, medical director of the Tuberculosis Hospital reports seven patients discharged and four new patients admitted to the hospital, in November. A total of 403 examinations were made at the out-patient clinics and 14 new cases of tuberculosis were found.
Dr. J. Spottiswood Taylor, director of the Tumor Clinic, reports the clinic building over 50 per cent completed and an order has been placed with the General Electric Company for their E.G.-250 deep therapy unit. This is the type which Memorial Hospital in New York recently made a purchase of six units.

Special Clinics
Miss Adele Diddicksen, director of the Division of Public Health Nursing, reports closer relationships with school personnel has resulted in more prompt care of school children through use of medical consultation as well as home care by the nurses. Special immunization clinics have been organized in Saugerties, Olive, Shandaken and Esopus and the dental hygienist's work in Wallkill Central School was practically completed in November.

Better water supplies were reported by Harry P. Edinger, director of the Division of Environmental Sanitation, in areas threatened earlier by water shortages. Sewage plant inspections were made and plants found to be operating normal.
Unsatisfactory phosphatase results were secured on a milk sample from a pasteurizing plant of a local institution in the town of Esopus and one from a cream sample in Saugerties. The difficulty was corrected. The difficulty in the Esopus institution was traced to improper adjustment of thermometers.

Report on Schools
Work on the 132 schools in Ulster county disclosed there are 76 one-room schools; 14 two-room schools with 42 larger schools. Rural schools accommodate 4,029 children; the central and high schools, exclusive of Kingston, 5,177, and the city of Kingston 5,955, giving a total school population in the county, exclusive of the college students at New Paltz, of 15,161.

Thirty-six schools are served by public water supplies, 68 by water supplies on the property, and 28 have drinking water carried in fifty-six of the schools still use privies for sewage disposal.
Between 4,500 and 5,000 meals are served in the 17 eating places maintained in the various schools. The statistical report shows 13 cases of chickenpox, 2 pertussis, 4 pneumonia, 8 scarlet fever including strep sore throat.

There were 256 X-rays on adult admissions to hospitals in the county in the tuberculosis detection program which is financed by the New York State Department of Health.

Fifty-one cases of cancer were reported in November and there were 12 deaths.

In November there were 112 live births reported, five stillbirths, three deaths under a month and one from one to 11 months of age.

Heart Disease Leads
The resident deaths were 89 as follows: Heart disease 47; cancer 12; cerebral hemorrhage 4; accidents 2; pneumonia 5; diseases of arteries 2; diabetes 2; tuberculosis 2 and all other causes 13.

There were 136 visits and inspections of milk plants and 132 milk samples taken. Plate count showed 112 satisfactory and 20 unsatisfactory. B. Coll. showed 55 satisfactory and 12 unsatisfactory; phosphates showed 65 satisfactory and 2 unsatisfactory.

Investigations were conducted in two public nuisance reports, there were five restaurants inspected, six school inspections, 10 cases of dog bite, 20 rabies control visits or inspections and eight general investigations of complaints.

The Kingston city meat inspector reports 412 cows examined and 508 calves.

The Kingston plumbing inspector reports five applications for new installations, 13 for installations in existing buildings, 22 preliminary inspections, 11 final inspections and 29 other inspections. One complaint was received and investigated.

Healthier in 1948

New York, Dec. 22 (AP)—Americans were healthier in 1948 than ever before, says Dr. Louis I. Dublin, statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Dublin reported yesterday that an analysis of health conditions indicates continued improvement in 1948. "The 1948 death rate," he said, "will establish a new low in our country with a figure of slightly below 10 per cent 1,000 population."

Quentin Roosevelt

right wing struck 100 feet from the 534-foot summit of the rocky island. The plane was on the Hong Kong beam, en route from Shanghai, but too low.

Parts of the plane were strewn for half a mile. Two of the huge engines were hurled 300 feet.

Sir Alexander Grantham, the colonial governor, telegraphed the secretary of the colonies that the plane was "flying in foggy weather conditions against the advice of the Hong Kong control tower."

The 29-year-old Roosevelt had brushed with danger many times before—as an army captain in World War II and in hazardous aerial missions to isolated Chinese Nationalist troops. But his death came yesterday on a routine business trip on the normally easy flight between Shanghai and Hong Kong.

Chinese National Airlines Corporation (C.N.A.C.) said the C-54 Skymaster smashed up in the fog on Basalt Island, 10 miles east of here, with 28 passengers and seven crewmen. All were listed as Chinese with the exception of Roosevelt and the pilot, Charles Sundby, a Danish National.

Five women and one child were among the victims of the unexplained crash. C.N.A.C. Headquarters said the passengers included Peng Hsueh-Pei, former minister of information; Feng Yu-Cheng, Shanghai manager of Chinese Central News Agency; and P. L. Pang, noted Chinese movie director.

Sunday had radioed within sight of Hong Kong that he had found a break in the clouds over Blas Bay, 40 miles east; he was letting down for the run into British Crown Colony. What happened next is still not clear.

Young Roosevelt was vice president of C.N.A.C. He passed up two fully-loaded transports on the same flight and boarded an extra plane. The other two arrived safely.

Mrs. Roosevelt, the former Frances B. Webb of Kansas City, refused to give up hope in the long hours between the news of the crash-up and the rescue party's confirmation of her husband's death. They were married in April 1944. Mrs. Roosevelt is in Shanghai with the couple's three young daughters.

At her Oyster Bay, N. Y., home, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., announced her son's body would be brought home for burial. She said another son, Cornelius, planned to go to Shanghai from Hong Kong to be with Quentin's widow and children.

Quentin was named after his father's younger brother who was killed in air combat over German lines in World War I. His father died in Normandy in 1914. Another uncle, Kermit, gave his life in World War II. Quentin, wounded in the North African campaign, received the Silver Star, Croix de Guerre and Purple Heart.

EAT WELL for Less

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

The New Year will find the Golden West ready and welcoming. Essie L. Elliott, Home Economics Director of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, an executive of National Safety Council, gives her plans exclusively to readers of this column.

"New Year's Eve will be spent at home with my sister and our closest friends."

"A bowl of California punch, which I call 'Golden Glow,' will be available all evening. For the teenagers, who are not saving appetites for later festivities, corn chips, salted nuts, popcorn, apples and oranges will surround the punch bowl."

"At 11 o'clock a buffet supper will precede the impending event of 1949. The menu has been planned to give the hostess all the time possible with guests. No last minute tricky food preparation. Most of it can be prepared the day before."

Golden Glow Punch
(30 punch glass servings)
One pint tea, 1 1/2 cup sugar, 1 quart orange juice, 1 cup lemon juice, 1 pint pineapple juice, 1 quart carbonated water, ice, orange and lemon slices.

Dissolve sugar in hot tea. Chill. Add other ingredients. Pour into a bowl, imbedded in ice or add ice cubes to chill it thoroughly. Float orange and lemon slices.

Guacamole
"We in California borrow many recipes and ideas from our Spanish and Mexican residents. Elena, author of Famous Mexican and Spanish Recipes, taught me this delicious avocado mixture to spread on breads, crackers, corn chips or warm tortillas."

One fresh tomato, peeled; 2 medium avocados, 1/2 small onion, minced; 1 tablespoon lemon juice, salt and pepper to taste, chopped green chile to taste.

Mash tomato and avocados together, and blend in remaining ingredients. Serve as a spread for eight or ten persons.

Tuna Casserole
(Serves eight)

This is very easy to make. It can be prepared ahead of time. One 8 oz. can tuna, one 3 oz. bag of potato chips, one No. 2 can mushrooms. Crush potato chips to dime size. Arrange tuna and chips in alternate layers in baking dish. Add the mushrooms. Bake until thoroughly hot, about one-half hour.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, fried sliced bologna, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, tart jelly, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Vegetable chowder, toasted peanut butter and chili sauce sandwiches, fruit bowl, tea, milk.

CALIFORNIA NEW YEAR'S EVE BUFFET: Golden Glow punch, tuna casserole, meat balls, cold cuts and cheese, variety breads, Guacamole, spiced beefs, celery, olives, pickled figs, lemon tarts, fruit cake, assorted holiday candies, coffee, milk.

Housewives Chase Dinner

Pocklington, England, (AP)—The people of Pocklington, housewives included, tore off in pursuit when eight fat steers—local meat ration for the week—jumped a slaughterhouse fence and headed for the Yorkshire moors. They caught them all—the last one three villages, ten miles and eight hours later. Said a tired housewife: "What would you do? That was our Sunday dinner."

Intra-Party Scraps Appear As Prelude to Other Battles

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—Both Republicans and Democrats in the new Senate may do some hot scrapping among themselves before they settle down to party line fighting.

In the making are contests for: 1. The post of Senate president pro tempore, mostly an honorary job so long as there is a vice president to preside over the chamber. Friends of Senator Tydings of Maryland are trying to put him in the spot which Senator McClellan of Tennessee held until the Republicans took control of Congress two years ago.

2. The minority (G.O.P.) floor leadership. This is the one that may cause the most fireworks, if Senator Wherry of Nebraska decides to fight for the job.

Wherry is keeping his own counsel, but friends said the Nebraskaan is not taking kindly to a campaign to shove him back into his old post as assistant leader.

In the last session, Wherry served as acting leader because Senator White of Maine was ill. White did not seek reelection.

Ever since last month's election upset, self-styled liberals among the Republicans have been more openly clamoring for Wherry's scalp. Wherry also is said to have incurred the opposition of Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, because some of his votes against certain foreign policy proposals sponsored by Vandenberg.

On the other hand, Senator Taft of Ohio—who appears likely to be re-elected chairman of the G.O.P. Policy Committee—has told friends he prefers Wherry.

May Have Candidate

The self-dubbed liberal group has been talking of putting up their own candidate against Wherry. Those mentioned in this connection include Senators Baldwin of Connecticut, Lodge and Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Knowland of California.

On the other hand, some veteran members of the Senate have been talking about a shift which would make Vandenberg—the retiring president pro-temp—chairman of the G.O.P. conference. Senator Millican of Colorado, the floor leader instead of conference chairman and Wherry the assistant leader.

Bayed at from two sides, Wherry apparently is getting ready to fight for a stake he thinks may be a big one for him.

The Nebraskaan pitched his successful re-election campaign in part on the promise that his state would have its first full-fledged representation in the senate's top leadership if he was returned to Washington.

The party members who describe themselves as Liberals already are letting Millican know that they want a bigger voice in shaping G.O.P. policy in the new Congress.

The Colorado senator acknowledged that he has received at least one letter on that matter from a dissatisfied colleague. Millican would not go into detail, but the letter is said to contain a demand that there be frank and open discussion of the leadership slate before any action on it.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt.), said he plans to talk to Millican along that line. He asserted the election outcome "justifies" giving the Liberals in the senate greater representation in the party councils."

A McKellar-Tydings fight, if one develops, also might involve more than two scrapping personalities. Some administration supporters are keeping their fingers crossed lest it open old Civil Rights wounds.

While both McKellar and Tydings supported President Truman in the campaign, most southern-ers could be expected to string along with McKellar in a showdown battle with a border state contender.

McKellar, who will be 80 in June, has announced publicly he would be happy to resume the problem office as well as the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee.

Tydings, 21 years younger, told a reporter yesterday: "If the senators desire to elect me to this post, I would accept it as a very great honor."

Court Is Asked To Free Woman

Marburg, Germany, Dec. 22 (AP)—Defense counsel asked a U. S. Military Government Court today to clear Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo of charges of killing her husband "so she and her little boy can enjoy this Christmas."

Stanley H. Gaines of Brookline, Mass., lawyer for Mrs. Ybarbo, said she acted in self-defense in shooting her German soldier husband, Sgt. John Ybarbo of Goidad, Tex.

Pointing at Mrs. Ybarbo, 23-year-old mother from Malden, Mass., Gaines declared: "This girl was afraid. Her husband was beating her up. She was under attack. He was tough. He had beaten her brutally before. Twice he had threatened to kill her. She had reason to be afraid."

The court of three American judges retired to begin deliberating on the judgment. It will announce the finding tomorrow afternoon if the judges are agreed by that time. It will be the first judgment ever pronounced on an American woman charged with murder in occupied Germany.

Worth E. Cawley, chief military government attorney, asked the court to base its decision on Anglo-American common law, which he said should be applied to Americans in Germany, even under military occupation.

Gaines painted a dramatic picture of an abused woman, helpless before a brutal mate.

He described Mrs. Ybarbo as cowering on the bed where her husband was beating her.

He recounted her testimony that Ybarbo told her: "I am going to the bathroom to wash off this blood. You stay right there and when I come back I am going to black both your eyes, bust your nose and knock out all your teeth."

"Should she wait until he returns?" Gaines demanded. He asked the three American judges on the court:

"Can your honors really find beyond reasonable doubt that she was not in fear, or did not act in self defense?"

Relapses Are Suffered

Donora, Pa., Dec. 22 (AP)—Four of the persons affected by the lethal smog that killed 20 persons here last October were hospitalized by relapses today, Dr. William Rongaus, Donora Board of Health physician, said however, that "nothing in the air now made them sick. I treated them all personally when the smog was here and all of them suffered quite a lot. They just never got over the effects of the first attack."

Johnston Defends Position on Ruling

Los Angeles, Dec. 22 (AP)—Eric Johnston, says that if opposing employment of a known Communist in a responsible position "makes me dogmatic, doctrinaire and absolutist, I plead guilty on all three counts."

Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich used these adjectives in criticizing Johnston for the decision of major film producers, whose association Johnston heads, to dismiss 10 Hollywood writers, directors and producers charged with contempt of Congress.

In a statement yesterday replying to the judge, Johnston said "I presented the producers with two alternatives: Either they could employ persons thought by the public to be Communists and defend their employment, or they could dismiss them. The choice was up to the producers. The decision was entirely theirs. They made it unanimously."

In stating that "I would not employ a known Communist in a responsible position," Johnston added: "In this attitude I find myself in reputable company. The government of the United States will not employ Communists; our national labor unions are purging Communists from positions of leadership. This is my position. I intend to stand by it."

Judge Yankwich made his remarks Monday when he affirmed a jury verdict and ordered M.G.M. studio to reinstate writer Lester Cole in his $1,350-a-week job and pay him $75,000 back salary. Cole and the others of the "Hollywood ten" were suspended a year ago when they refused to tell the House Un-American Activities Committee whether they were Communists.

He described Mrs. Ybarbo as cowering on the bed where her husband was beating her.

He recounted her testimony that Ybarbo told her: "I am going to the bathroom to wash off this blood. You stay right there and when I come back I am going to black both your eyes, bust your nose and knock out all your teeth."

"Should she wait until he returns?" Gaines demanded. He asked the three American judges on the court:

Grand Jury Hands Up Four Indictments

Four indictments, all sealed, were handed up by the grand jury this morning in Supreme court. On motion of District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn the indictments were transferred to County court will be in March.

There were three dismissals reported. The grand jury found no bills in the cases of The People vs. Viola Washington, charged with assault, second degree; The People vs. Edward Ocker, Jr., of Allaben, charged with grand larceny, second degree, and The People vs. Samuel H. Schaffer, charged with a Conservation Law violation. Bail in all three cases was exonerated.

The grand jury also made a report on its inspection of the county jail and expressed its thanks to the court, district attorney, sheriff and his staff for the courteous treatment received during sessions of the grand jury.

Grand jurors were then excused with the thanks of the court.

NEW WEDDING QUESTION
It is curious that the following problem should not have been asked about before today: "When the bridegroom has a best man and ushers coming from out of town, some of whom are married and whose wives will come to the wedding, is it his obligation to put up the wives as well as his attendants?"

Sorry! The answer is yes, unless the bride's family has friends in the neighborhood who would be glad to invite these young couples to stay with them.

Meeting Stepmother In Full

Dear Mrs. Post: I am divorced and remarried. I have teen-age children—a boy and girl—by my first marriage. Suppose my wife and I go to a football game or anywhere where the younger people also are likely to be with their friends. How should they refer to my wife when introducing their friends? Stepmother? Father's wife? Or otherwise?

Answer: "My stepmother" is the simplest.

Bride's Parents Will Be Absent

Dear Mrs. Post: My parents can't travel the distance here to my wedding. In whose name should the engraved invitations be sent?

Answer: If you are living with relatives, they could send them out if you like them to. Otherwise, send them yourself. Announcements, however, could be sent by your parents from their home address.

Eating Sherbet

Dear Mrs. Post: I was at a banquet and with the meat course was served sherbet in a paper cup. I used my fork that I was eating the meat course with, but I did notice many other people used their teaspoons. Which of us was right?

Answer: The teaspoon was proper for sherbet.

Names On Book Plates

Dear Mrs. Post: In our book plate do you think it should be "Mary and John Smith" or the other way round.

Answer: John and Mary Smith would be correct. The other way round would be like having your cards engraved "Mrs. and Mr."

U. S. Suspends Marshall Aid To Netherlands East Indies

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—The United States today suspended
Marshall Plan aid to The Netherlands East Indies.
It was indicated the move, taken by the Economic Cooperation Administration with State Department approval, is intended to discourage Dutch military action against the Indonesian Republic.
The Dutch last week launched what they termed "police action" in Indonesia. United Nations investigators called it a violation of a truce agreement.

The Economic Cooperation Administrator, Paul G. Hoffman, said the suspension will continue "pending clarification of the present situation."

Aid to the Dutch homeland is not affected. Officials had "no comment" when asked whether this too might be suspended if the civil fighting goes on despite the U.N. ban.

Hoffman said the suspension is "effective immediately." It was explained that this means any contracts for recovery shipments signed today or later will not be honored—United States will not pick up the check.

The Netherlands Indies were allotted $68,000,000 in direct help for the recovery year which started last April 3.
Perhaps $14,100,000 of that total is affected by the shut-down, officials estimated—as well as future aid in the remaining years of the recovery program, unless Indonesia is pacified.

The Dutch homeland government has been allotted $298,500-000. In stating that The Netherlands itself is not affected, one official added privately, however, that E.C.A. will check closely on whether the Indonesian fighting represents a drain on the home economy sufficient to hurt the recovery effort.

Hoffman said in a statement that E.C.A. funds can be devoted to Indonesia. "Only if there is reasonable assurance that U. S. aid can be distributed efficiently
among the people of Indonesia and that it will contribute to economic recovery there and in Europe."

The Dutch-held portion of Indonesia was included in the recovery program, E.C.A. explained, on the conviction that an expansion of exports of rubber, copra,
palm oil, tin, petroleum, bauxite,
and other raw materials from the Indies would provide a stimulus to the recovery not only of Holland but of all western Europe.
More than half of the aid to Indonesia has been in textiles,
rice and wheat flour.

"As previously indicated, no procurement authorizations have been issued for military supplies," Hoffman said.

Hoffman Refers
of $100 to $1,000 fine or one to 12 months imprisonment, for persons convicted of willfully refusing to answer a subpoena of a Congressional Committee.

Hoffman went on to say that
"on moral and good government grounds" Murray might be right in objecting to a one-man committee.

But legally, Hoffman declared,
there is precedent for one-man operation.

The hearing is on the strike at the Shakespeare fishing tackle plant at Kalamazoo, Mich. Three members of the C.I.O. United Steelworkers were jailed yesterday for refusing to answer Kalamazoo Grand Jury's questions about a raid on the plant December 1.

In a letter he released yesterday, Murray told the Michigan
congressman:
"I assume that in claiming to act as chairman of a special subcommittee you are relying on Congressman Hartley's letter, dated December 2, 1948, which purported to appoint you chairman of a special subcommittee of one."
"I am advised by counsel that no authority in law exists for the appointment by committee chairmen of subcommittees of one and that your purported authority under Congressman Hartley's letter is accordingly wholly void."

He quoted Lesinski as saying that Hoffman had no authority because subcommittees must include members of both parties.
The Michigan Democrat "was not even so much as advised of Congressman Hartley's purported designation of a subcommittee," Murray's letter added.

"I am advised by counsel that the purported subpoena is void and that your claim to constitute a one-man subcommittee is likewise void and illegal."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

Correct Play Can Set This Game Bid

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

Today we are asking Santa Claus to look after the stocking of Nick Minuskin of New York City. Nick sponsors the New York Junior Symphony Orchestra. There are 82 children in the orchestra today.

Any child, rich or poor, may apply for a tryout. If a child has no instrument, Mr. Minuskin sees that he gets one. If he needs further musical education, that is provided. Race, color or creed is no barrier in this children's orchestra, which gives concerts only for the benefit of charity. Children working for children make a great team.

Occasionally Nick takes time out from his business and his work with the children to play some bridge. He did the best he could on today's hand. Santa Claus. It was his partner who slipped up. Don't hold that against Nick.

Against the three no trump contract, East opened the five of diamonds. Nick, holding the West cards, went right up with the ace, and returned the diamond queen. Believe it or not, his partner allowed the queen to hold the trick.

With only the nine and eight of diamonds in dummy, East should have realized that all he had to do was to overtake the queen with the king and then lead the ten-spot. North would have had to win that trick with the jack, and East still would have the ace of clubs to get in with, to cash the balance of the diamonds and defeat the contract.

When Nick was allowed to hold the second trick with the queen of diamonds, he had to switch to spade, declarer won and proceeded to knock out the ace of clubs. All East could do was to cash the king of diamonds, so East and West made only the ace, king and queen of diamonds and the ace of clubs.

Rorschach, Switzerland, (AP)—Negotiations were begun here between Switzerland and Austria recently for the renewal and amendment of agreements for control of the 20-mile reach of the Rhine river forming the Swiss-Austrian frontier. Swiss and Austrian delegation opened a preliminary discussion of the manifold problems involved in the control of traffic across and along the river and supervision of the frontier. A full-scale Swiss-Austrian conference to settle these problems is expected to open in Vienna early next year.

Will Set Up Board
London, Dec. 22 (AP)—A seven-member International Control Board—with Germany as one of the members—will be set up soon to boss Ruhr industries, diplomatic sources said today. The plan has been developed during a conference of six western powers, the United States, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, which probably will complete its work this week. A formal communique may be delayed until after Christmas.

Geneva, (AP)—Geneva's fifth international music competition will take place from September 10 to October 4, 1949, the organizing committee decided recently. Prizes totaling 11,000 Swiss francs ($2,570) will be awarded to the best performers in singing, piano, and woodwind and string instruments. Musicians of any country between the ages of 15 and 30 and of either sex are eligible to compete.

Woodridge's powerful, undefeated Atoms invade the municipal auditorium tonight for an Orange-Sullivan League contest against Sickler's Delivery.

With 10 straight victories to their credit—the most recent a 67-56 conquest of Goshen—the league leaders will be favored over Sickler's refurbished lineup.

Buddy Smith Here
Buddy Smith and Gus Koch, varsity players at Ithaca College, and Percy Green, high scoring Kerhonkson forward will bolster the Deliverymen's lineup for the major test.

Sickler officials have delayed start of the game until 9:30 in deference to Christmas shopping.

Look for Crowd
"We're hoping to see a large crowd out tonight," Manager Tommy Maines said this morning.

"The Atoms have one of the strongest independent clubs in New York state and the fans will see a good show."

Woodridge's leading stars are Earl May, Schwartz and Novogrodsky, all prolific scorers.

EDDIE WEAVER

Big Ed Weaver, former K.H.S. all-time basketball great who holds the DUSO League scoring record for a season, will be a special added attraction in the sensational Woodridge Atoms tonight at the municipal auditorium. Weaver is currently starring at Valley Forge Prep in Wayne, Pa. Don't let the big fool you. It's a bit outdated and shows Ed early in his K.H.S. career. He's now well over six feet and 200 pounds.

Village Rest forfeited to Fullers Sports and the Sportsmen won over a pickup team in an exhibition, 65-47.

Van Wageningen edged Charlie Marable in a battle of centers, 14-13, but the Clintons had better balance in the stretch.

Sickler's Delivery had the scare of its life in the Recreation League this week, downing an inspired Ray's Riversiders quintet, 43-41, in one of the top games of the season.

In other contests, Chez Emile was hard pressed to beat Harry's Angels, 42-37, while Schuler's Inn notched its first victory, 33-28, over Skyline.

Ray's led Sickler's at the half, 21-17, and a major upset appeared in the making until the last two minutes of play when a deuce by "Snitz" Houghtaling put the Deliverymen on even terms with Ray's for the first time during the game.

Bloom High Scorer
George Bloom's basket made it 41-39 and Tommy Maines added another deuce for 43-39. Goercke promptly hit from outside for Ray's reducing the buge to two points but the Deliverymen played safe and froze the ball in the last half minute.

At one point in the third quarter, the Riversiders were in front by 10 points but three quick set shots by Jackie Ruzzo sliced the margin.

George Bloom was high scorer for Sickler's with 15, while Ruzzo had 10. Riversiders' heroes included Van Wageningen with 14, Eric Goercke 11 and Don Koeppen with nine.

Jordan Saves Chez
Two straight shots by Joe Jordan saved Chez Emile in the final minute against Harry's Angels. Mains and Goff shared 22 points for the winners, while Neills tossed in 14 for the losers.

McCardie's 16 points set the pace for Schuler's triumph over Skyline. Riggins had 10 for the losers.

NBA Rates Walcott Next to Louis

Washington, Dec. 22 (AP)—The National Boxing Association said today it thinks Joe Walcott is the logical contender for Joe Louis' title.

All this came out in the final ratings for 1948.

The N.B.A. didn't name any logical contender for Louis' crown. But it listed Walcott as the most likely looking of the lot.

Next came Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati light heavyweight who knocked out Joe Baksi in the 11th round of their fight in Madison Square Garden a couple of weeks ago.

At the top of the "honorable mention" group is Lee Savold of Paterson, N. J.

Following Savold are such boxers as Billy Conn, Joe Maxim, Jimmy Brins, Johnny Flynn, Joe Baksi and Rusty Payne.

The N.B.A. Rating Committee, headed by Fred J. Saddy, put in a special plug for Walcott.

"The logical contender for Joe Louis' heavyweight title," said Saddy, "must always include Joe Walcott, and the N.B.A. believes that the final selection for a title match should be Walcott or the heavyweight who is good enough to beat Walcott in an elimination go."

Army Line Coach Moves to Cincinnati

Cincinnati, Dec. 22 (AP)—Sid Gillman, line coach at West Point, has accepted the job as head football coach at the University of Cincinnati. M. Charles Mileham, U.C. athletic director, made the announcement.

Gillman, who had reported he was staying at West Point, wired Mileham yesterday.

"I have not been able to obtain my release from the U. S. Military Academy. I am happy to accept the University of Cincinnati coaching position in accordance with the terms you offered."

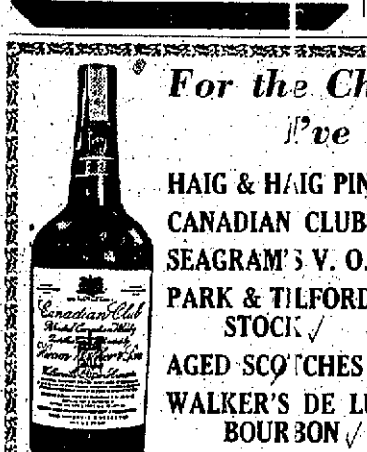

Mileham said the terms were an eight-year contract at $10,000 a year, the longest of its kind in U.C. history.

Gillman succeeds Ray Noling.

Predict Lower Salaries for 1948 College Stars in Draft by Pros

Rochester Heavy Kayoes Bettina

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 22 (AP)—Johnny Flynn, Rochester heavy-weight, scored the 12th victory in his last 14 starts last night by knocking out Mello Bettina of Beacon, N. Y., in the sixth round of a scheduled ten-round fight.

Flynn, a favorite at 5-9, weighed 210; Bettina, 190½.

Flynn smashed the veteran comebacker to the canvas for an eight count in the third and for a nine count early in the sixth.

At least one person who ought to know—N.Y.C. Commissioner Bert Bell—is inclined to think the cash bidding won't be particularly spirited.

Real Stars Source "After all," Bell said, "there weren't many outstanding name players in the college ranks this year. There wasn't anywhere near as many as there have been during the past several seasons."

He's right on that count. There weren't many names like Charley Trippi, Johnny Lujack, Bobby Layne, Bob Chappuis, Glenn Davis or Doc Blanchard among the players performing on college grids this year.

"It stands to reason," Bell went on, "that there won't be any fabulous salary offers for the crop that's available now."

The N.F.L. commissioner predicted that there won't be many fat bonuses for the '48 college crop and that "economic conditions will bring the scale down for the high salaried players in the game today just as they will for bricklayers and carpenters and other trades people."

Of the 18 teams—10 in the National and eight in the All-American—only the Philadelphia Eagles announced their complete draft list. Some made public only as two or three names, keeping the remainder secret until contacted.

Grid Dodgers Sign Columbia's Kusserow Brooklyn, Dec. 22—The Brooklyn football Dodgers of the All-American Conference yesterday signed Lou Kusserow, Columbia fullback, for the 1949 season.

Kusserow scored 108 points for the Columbia team last season with 18 touchdowns. He is a 21-year-old native of Glassport, Pa.

cused Duggan of giving him confidential government papers, denied he ever made such an accusation.

The F.B.I. disclosed that 10 days ago it questioned Duggan, but added, without elaborating, that the questioning was merely "routine."

Welles and two other former high ranking State Department officials yesterday strongly defended Duggan's record of 14 years service in the State Department.

So far, police records have listed the 43-year-old Duggan as having either jumped or fallen to his death Monday night from the office of the Institute of International Education, of which he was president. Police said there were no indications of a struggle.

Associates of Duggan theorized he might have fallen through an open window while trying to put on his galoshes. When Duggan's body was found Monday night he had on one galosh. The other was in his office, along with his hat and coat.

Brother Gives Views Stephen Duggan, Jr., Laurence's brother, told a reporter "there was no motive at all for my brother to have taken his life."

"I believe he fell from the window when he went there for air after suffering an attack of nausea or something like that," the brother declared. "He had a weak stomach and had been ordered to drink milk through the day to keep it settled."

Also, he was a very tired man. I think he went back to work too soon after back operation."

Stephen Duggan, Jr., attorney, said he had examined Laurence's office and had found that his brother returned there Monday night after appointments elsewhere to sign his mail before going home.

"In this mail were several letters making appointments for the next few weeks," he said. "He had planned to make a trip to Washington Tuesday with an associate at the institute."

"He had a wonderful family with four kids and he loved his job. This investigation (by the F.B.I.) didn't bother him. He was a fighter. He laughed at it."

Department of Justice officials handling a federal grand jury investigation of espionage said yesterday no subpoena had been issued for Duggan to testify before it. The House Committee in Washington also said it had not called Duggan.

A grand jury was expected to hear testimony today from Francis B. Sayre, former assistant secretary of state.

Sayre, along with his secretary, Miss Anna Belle Newcomb, was to have gone before the jury yesterday and to have appeared before the House Committee today. After the jury postponed its session with him until today, the committee called off its meeting.

Courtesy of the F.B.I. were filed from Sayre's office in 1937 and 1938.

A top assistant of Sayre was Alger Hiss, indicted by a previous grand jury on charges of perjury for denying he furnished secret documents to Chambers.

Two other persons accused by Chambers—William Ward Egan, former employee in the U.S. Bureau of Standards, and Henry Julian Wadleigh, former State Department official—appeared before the jury yesterday. Both have testified several times previously.

All-South Eleven's Line Averages 218

Miami, Fla., Dec. 22 (AP)—The South will start a line averaging 218 pounds per man against the North in Mahi Shrine's All-Star football game in the Orange Bowl Christmas night.

Coach Andy Gustafson said his squad was working well together but "we still need more running to make us ready as a team for the Hickman bunch."

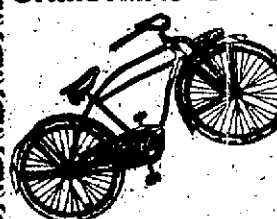

He said rough drills were planned for today and Thursday.

Coach Herman Hickman's North squad also had a hard day's work ahead of it. The Yale coach said he told his boys to get a good night's sleep "because from here on in, the practice sessions are going to get rough."

Fire Razes Building
Southampton, Pa., Dec. 22 (AP)—Fire raged through seven adjoining buildings of an industrial plant in this Bucks county town last night. The plant was that of the Hyzer & Lewellyn Refractories, makers of firebrick and casting crucibles. Flames lighted the sky and the glow was visible 10 miles away. Ten rural fire companies raced to the scene over snow-rutted highways. No damage estimate was available.

Drinking and Tattooing Give Hock Shudders

Newark, N. J., Dec. 22 (AP)—The thought of drinking and tattooing intermingled gives the state of New Jersey the shudders. State Alcoholic Beverage Control Commissioner Erwin B. Hock voiced this thought today. A Tavernkeeper asked if he could allow a tattooist to set up business in the tavern. The principal customers were to be soldiers from Fort Dix.

Wrote Hock in his opinion:

"The tattooing business is wholly inappropriate and out of place in a tavern. I shudder to think of tavern patrons waking up the morning after, staring in amazement or regret at the sight of a dancing lady or battleship or army tank on their chest. I have equal shudders at what might happen if the tattooist, during slow hours, had been fortifying himself with a few drinks. Considering the public weal, it is my ruling that tavernkeepers shall not allow tattooing at taverns in New Jersey."

Television Gets Ready for Bigger Fireside Shows

Hollywood, Dec. 22 (AP)—Television—the baby whose bounces have been followed by many worried Hollywood eyes is getting ready to take bigger steps.

Hal Roach, for more than 30 years a producer of motion picture comedies, today begins the first of a series of television productions. And from now on, says Roach, all his work will go into the television field.

If, as video-insiders say, films are the lifeblood of the new industry, Roach's entry into the field might be regarded as a major transfusion.

As Jerry Fairbanks, who has a video producing contract with N.B.C., puts it:

"We feel we are pioneering an industry that will eventually be many times larger than the movies. The time is not far off when films will provide at least 50 per cent of all television programs."

Fairbanks and other major video producers claim too that the break with the movies—reshowing old westerns and other films on television—is not far distant. Production costs are averaging nearly $10,000 per half-hour program so far, but the television producers say they're determined to make good original shows for the future.

For example: Fairbanks has completed "Public Prosecutor," a series of 26 shows, each 20 minutes long, and "Television Closeups," five-minute oddity featurettes for N.B.C. He has three other series in production.

The first 13 shows of another detective-type series, "The Case of Eddie Drake," have been completed for C.B.S. by IMPRO. (Independent Motion Pictures Releasing Organization).

Marshall Grant-Realm Productions has finished six of a "Great Stories" series for American Tobacco Company (Lucky Strike) that will start next month. Slated for N.B.C. release Jan. 21 in New York and about the same time here, the weekly show will run at least six months.

Roach's announcement tipped the current mood: "Following the entertainment-seeking trend of the public mind has been a lifework of mine since the inception of motion pictures. I am thoroughly convinced that the insatiable desire to be entertained will find its greatest satisfaction through television."

Roach plans six half-hour shows at his Culver city studio. "Sadie and Sally," a comedy show starring Joy Lansing and Lois Hall, will be the opener.

Says Plane Missing

Athens, Dec. 22 (AP)—An official at Hassan Airport said today a Czechoslovak airline plane with 24 persons aboard has been missing since last night. (In Rome it was learned the plane's passengers included five Brazilian nationals, an attaché of the Greek embassy in Prague and 13 other persons who boarded the plane in Prague. The plane was said to have been on the Prague to Palestine run.)

Dec. 26th

On the day after Christmas,
And not at all strange,
Are the crowds flocking in
With their gifts to exchange.

Their socks are too large,
Their ties are too bright,
Their slippers are wrong,
Their shirts aren't right.

They have too many pencils,
Their books they have read,
Or have two of a kind,
And wish something instead.

Now I have no guise,
For I make a good living
From people who give
And keep giving and giving.

But if you are anxious
And eager to learn
How to give and be sure
Your gifts won't return.

The suggestion is mine,
